

DnB NORD Bankas

Sustainable Finance in the Baltic States

17 October 2006, Vilnius, Lithuania

The seminar will be kindly hosted by DNB Nord, Lithuania.

Time	Topic	Speaker
9.00 - 9.30	Registration
9.30- 9.35	Welcome address	Werner Schilli, Bank President, DNB Nord Lithuania
9.35- 9.45	Welcome and introduction by the Chair	Mark King, Head of Environmental Policy, EBRD
9.45- 10.45	National strategy for sustainable development and the engagement of the private sector  What is the motivation for a bank to take sustainability matters serious? What are the business areas where sustainability concerns play a role? How can the UNEP FI network help?	Prof. Romualdas Juknys, Head of Expert Group on Implementation of National Strategy for Sustainable Development, Ministry of Environment of Lithuania  Knut Rørbakken, Group CSR Officer, Nordea Bank AB
10.45- 11.15	Coffee break
11.15- 12.45	An introduction to SRI: Why, Who and How?  Corporate Social Responsibility Reporting in the 35 Most Liquid Listed Baltic Companies  Environmental regulations affecting financial institutions	Laurent De Greef, Senior Vice President, Acadian Asset Management  Shana Gavron, Analyst, DnB Nord  Valts Vilnitis, Estonian, Latvian & Lithuanian Environment Ltd.
12.45- 14.00	Lunch
14.00- 15.30	EBRD case studies on environmental risk management  Environmental risks in project finance and the Equator Principles  Risk management in financing renewable energy and energy efficiency projects	Mark King, Head of Environmental Policy, EBRD  Berit L. Lauridsen, Chief Advisor, Project Finance Division, Eksport Kredit Fonden  Johan Ljungberg, Head of Environmental Unit, Nordic Investment Bank

15.30-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-16.45	Raising capital through environmental and social considerations in lending  Building up an environmental management and reporting system – Experiences from Swedbank	Viktoras Budraitis, Regional Director of Corporate and Retail Banking, Šiaulių Bankas  Britt-Marie Lundh, former Senior Vice President Environmental Affairs, Swedbank

The seminar will be held in English language.