

Mentor's Biography

Mr. Edmund (Ted) Olivier

For the last fifteen years, Edmund (Ted) Olivier has worked as a consultant and technical advisor for development banks, international agencies, non-profits, private investors, financial institutions and small to medium sized companies. He focuses on climate change risk, climate finance and investments in water, waste and renewable energy. Ted has worked on projects with UNEP FI since 2006. Prior to 2003, Ted had over fifteen years of wide-ranging experience in asset management, capital markets and commodities in the USA, Europe and Middle East at the Abu Dhabi Investment Authority, Riyadh Bank, NatWest Markets, and Banque Indosuez. Ted holds an MSc in Environmental Technology (2002 with distinction) from Imperial College London and a first degree in Political Science from Stanford University.